STRAIGHT FROM THE SOURCE

When you know who made the cards, gifts, and artwork you love, they mean even more.

CULTIVATING COMMUNITY

Left: Winner of our holiday card design challenge, Annie Mertlich, illustrates one of her signature botanical motifs. Right: Annie is surprised with the news of her win at 'Camp Minted'.

Holiday Q&A with our Co-Founders

We caught up with Minted Co-CEOs Mariam and Melissa to reflect on community, environmental responsibility and creating new traditions for generations to come.

What was one of your fondest Minted memories this year?

Mariam: "My fondest Minted memory this year was attending our annual 'Camp Minted' event for our community of independent artists. It was inspiring (and great fun!) to see this global network gather together while knowing that Minted was the catalyst for these relationships."

What is your longest-kept Minted item?

Mariam: "My longest-kept Minted item is my family's holiday card from 2008, Minted's inaugural year. This card is truly a family heirloom now—it features my now-teenage kids when they were 4 and 1!"

What's your outlook on environmental responsibility for the stationery industry?

Melissa: "It is imperative that the stationery industry works toward greater environmental stewardship and sustainability. As a leader in this area, Minted has deepened our sustainability pledge when it comes to products and packaging. And we continuously seek ways to further reduce our environmental footprint while consistently delivering the most beautiful stationery products."

What is one new holiday tradition that you are creating for your family?

Melissa: "I remember loving our holiday decorations growing up. The ritual of preparing the house for the holidays has such fond memories attached to it and I want my kids to have that too. Each year, we add an item and this year, I'm excited to shop our new Direct From Artist holiday decor."

Every Design is a Winner

It's true—think of our holiday card offering as the crème de la crème, curated through ongoing design challenges where independent artists everywhere submit their latest creations. This season alone, our top two Holiday Card Challenges received 7,824 entries and 2.3 million votes!

Here, discover some of the top vote-getters—and perhaps your perfect card.

It's a Wonderful Life by Jackie Crawford

Home and Hearts by Amy Kross

Hit Different by Jennifer Dario

Watercolor Joy by Vera Lim

Capri by Kristie Kern

Medieval Garden by Eve Schultz

Spark by Daisy Rizzo

Shimmering Tartan by Rebecca Durlfinger

You Bring Us Joy by Sara Hicks Malone

Twinkle Collage by Hailey Maddox

A Very Merry Season by Annie Mertlich

HOLIDAY CARD CHALLENGE WINNER:
Annie Mertlich, Salt Lake City, USA

Congratulations on your winning design! What inspired this one?

"The starting point was vintage, late 19th-century, hand-lettered business posters. From there, I decided to go with a more playful and casual approach. I'm also endlessly inspired by nature, so I definitely had to add in some wispy pines!"

What holiday card tips do you live by?

"Always let the photo shine, no matter what! The design should always support the photo, because that's ultimately the most important part of any card. I'm also a sucker for the traditional red and green color combination, it's just so classic and stunning!"

What do you love most about the holidays?

"I don't think there's a single thing that I don't LOVE! If I had to choose just a few, I'd say the glistening lights everywhere you go and the Christmas carols. I've gathered quite the collection of Christmas vinyl, so the record player is spinning all of December — and really, most of November as well!"

Quality You Can Feel—and Feel Good About

From our luxuriously thick recycled paper, to premium details like hand-pressed foil and the perfect custom envelope—make this year's card one to hold onto.

Personalize it with a foil-stamped nom de plume or words to live by.

Original designs from our artist community, printed on high-quality canvas.

Italian Vachetta leather begins a natural beige and only improves with age, developing a rich patina as it breaks in over the years.

“The slow process of transformation of our leathers is carried out with only natural vegetable tannins and with total respect for nature.”

— CONSORZIO VERA PELLE ITALIANA
CONCIATA AL VEGETALE

The leather trims on our best-selling bags are now sourced from the Genuine Italian Vegetable Tanned Leather Consortium. This unique association includes 20 tanneries in the Tuscan tanning district. They are united by a reverence for the skill Tuscan master tanners bring to the trade and the artisan traditions of this special place.

Vegetable-tanned leather absorbs the traces of our life, maturing and transforming with the passage of time. The natural aging doesn't compromise its qualities—to the contrary, it's a rare material that improves with use, embodying the signs of time as the most personal expression of nature and truth.
